

Unshaken Kids
Sunday Morning Online Sunday School

Matthew 13:1-9

“Let he who has _____ to hear, let him hear!”

What are parables? _____

What are the three places the seed might land, besides the good soil?

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

What do each of these things represent in the parable?

seeds: _____

sower: _____

soil: _____

The wayside is a _____ where people walk. Seeds could never grow here because the ground is too _____.

These are people who _____ the Word of God, but they don't _____ it! They forget about it before it has a chance to sink in.

The stony ground has very little _____, and lots of rocks.

These are people who hear the Word of God, and they get very _____, but their commitment is _____. As soon as they experience any sort of problem, they _____ under the pressure and give up on God.

Unshaken Kids Sunday Morning Online Sunday School

Matthew 13:1-9

The thorny ground is fertile, but it hasn't been taken care of! Weeds and thorns are also growing here. The weeds _____ out the Word of God.

These are people who are distracted by the things of this world, and they get distracted from the Lord.

When our hearts are fertile and taken care,
God's Word will bloom and grow in our lives.

Which one of these types of soil do you think describes your heart?

What can you do to make your heart ready to hear God's Word?
