

James Chapter 5

Unshaken Kids Study Guide

In verses 1-6, James speaks very strongly to what group of people? _____

What is the issue James has with this group of people? _____

He starts out verse 7 with the word “therefore”. Therefore is a transition word to show the connection between what he JUST talked about, and what he is ABOUT to talk about. So we have to ask the question, “What is the ‘therefore’ there for?” So, how does verses 1-6 connect to verses 7-8?

THREE times in verses 7-8, James encourages us to be patient. According to these verses, why do you think it is so important for us to be patient?

“Do not _____ against each other, brethren, lest you be

_____.” (vs 9) What is one thing you can change in your life

according to this verse (be specific!) _____

James Chapter 5

What does it mean to “let your ‘yes’ be ‘yes’ and your ‘no’ be ‘no’”? (Vs 12)

What should each of the following groups of people do:

people who are suffering: _____

people who are cheerful: _____

people who are sick: _____

Verse 16 is a great verse to memorize:

“Confess your trespasses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much.”

What example does James give of effective, fervent prayer? What did it accomplish? _____

Read 1 Kings 18 to hear more of this story!

James gives one last encouragement in verses 19-20. What is the result of helping someone who has “wandered from the truth”?
